THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.—Liberty is one of the dearest blessings which our forefathers handed down to us. It was purchased by the blood of many a valiant revolutionary hero; has been guarded by a Washington, a Jefferson, a Clay, and a Webster. But dearer still to the hearts of the people is that world-renowned remedy, known as Coo's Cough Balsam. It cures time, then we advanced directly east, by like magic the most violent attacks of croup and is indespensible in every family of children. Colds, sudden cough's sore throat, hoarseness, and inflamed lungs, are instant-barseness, and inflamed lungs, are instant-ly and surely cured by its timely use. No boarseness, and inflamed lungs, are instantly and surely cured by its timely use. No cough mixture has ever been known that equals it, which accounts for its great popularity with all classes. The young and old—the rich and poor—physicians, druggists—and all who have ever tested it speak in the highest terms of its merits. We say to our readers—buy it and try it. It easts but 40 cents the bottle, contains twice as much medicine as you can obtain in any other way at the same cost, and all our drug stores have it.

No sooner were we thus advancing in another mortal combat, our advancing in double quick soon checked their advancing and they sought safety in retreating; all went nicely till we encountered one of their batteries in an open field, our brigade having no connection on either right nor left we were forced to fall back a little piece to prevent being flanked, here that hostile battery tried to play havoe in our ranks with an abundance of shell, grape and canister.

At this moment three of Co. C were slight fort. Our division received orders to storm the works on the right of the 6th Corps, civil government is reestablished. Ere long Gentlemen—The Knabe pianos continue to give the most unbounded satisfaction; in fact, the more they are used, the better are they appreciated. There is a magic-like effect in their action, and a full orchestra of rich and rare melody in their touch and tone.— In their great compass may be distinguished all the varied strains, from the treble, now gushing forth with a sweetness unparalleled, stiring thevery soul with its sublime and touching pathos, and now ringing out the works on the right of the 6th Corps, the rebels soon abandoned their whole first d all the varied strains, from the treble, ow gushing forth with a sweetness unparleled, stiring the very soul with its sublime not touching pathos, and now ringing out lear and penetrating every note of which supremely musical, while the deep and owerful bass blends in with most perfect nison with that gradual and easy transion for which those instruments seem so niefly noted.

(called Ft. Gregg) for which they showed no inclination to abandon so quickly. After the capture we learned that hardly 10 minutes before our storming column rolled onward, Gen. Lee was there in person and ordered the fort to be held at all hazards.—
Hence their tenacity in resistence. After a fierce musketry of 40 minutes, we succeeded in overwhelming the garrison, closing at a hand to hand fight. The fierceness of the assault may be judged by the statement that Co. C had 2 killed and 11 wounded, viz: Henry Devore and Joshuah J. Sorthonson with the friends with the worthy satisfaction that the conflict is over and the country is saved.

What a happy day will it be when the remnant of Co. C will march through the streets of Millersburg as safeguards to our respective homes; the joy will be more perfect than the time Co.
